GOVERNOR'S OFFICE.

AUSTIN, TEXAS.

June 22, 1922.

Hon. S. L. Staples,
Secretary of State,
Austin, Texas.

Dear Mr. Secretary:

I am herewith filing with you, together with my veto of same, House Concurrent Resolution No. 19.

This resolution provides that the Secretary of State, in printing the laws passed by the Thirty-eighth Legislature, shall include in the printed volume all dates, all endorsements, and all names of presiding officers of House and Senate, and the noting on said bills when received in the Governor's office, and by whom. To print these additional names, dates and endorsements, as shown on the bills, would, in most cases, require an extra sheet of the printed volume for each bill printed, and would add an additional cost of approximately Fifteen Hundred Dollars to the printing of the laws. This information printed is absolutely worthless; it could not be of service in any way for any purpose. The bills, as printed without these notations, show by what vote they were passed and when they become effective, and the other matters could not be of any benefit in the volumes containing the laws.

The resolution is therefore vetoed and disapproved.

Respectfully,

Governor
